Color

Color touches every part of our brand. It helps us tell a visual story to match the one we weave with words.

Primary colors

These colors are a core element of Cisco's visual identity with Midnight Blue being a cornerstone of our identity. Use our primary colors generously. In looking at your visual execution, roughly 80% should be anchored in White or Midnight Blue.

White	Midnight Blue	Cisco Blue	Medium Blue
#FFFFFF	#07182D	#02C8FF	#0A60FF
rgb(255, 255, 255)	rgb(7, 24, 45)	rgb(2, 200, 255)	rgb(10, 96, 255)
CMYK 0, 0, 0, 0	CMYK 93, 81, 52, 66	CMYK 76, 0, 0, 0	CMYK 78, 58, 0, 0
	PMS 296 C	PMS 306 C	PANTONE 285 C

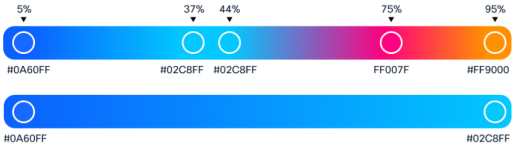

Less is more

When using our color palette, restraint is essential.

- Midnight Blue and White make up the foundation of our visuals. They should be used for background, text, and large color blocks.
- Gradients and secondary colors should only be used to direct attention and enhance elements. Be careful not to overwhelm.

Gradient Ramps

These are the technical gradient ramps for our primary gradients.

⚠️ Following this guide to keep us safe

Magenta and Orange are legally protected by other companies. If we misuse them, Cisco could face legal action — and the team that produced the content could be responsible for any related costs.

Stick to the rules to keep everyone protected.

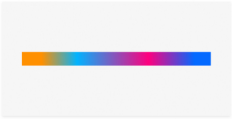

✕ Don't

Don't use any color other than Midnight Blue or White for text.

✕ Don't

Don't use accent colors as Call-To-Action (CTA) buttons.

✕ Don't

Don't create, change, or reorder gradients.
